RESPONSE OF WISCONSIN ELECTIONS COMMISSION AND ITS COMMISSIONERS AND ADMINISTRATOR TO PETITION FOR LEAVE TO COMMENCE AN ORIGINAL ACTION

Respondents Wisconsin Elections Commission (the “Commission”); Don Millis, Robert F. Spindell, Jr., Mark L.
Thomsen, Ann S. Jacobs, Marge Bostelmann, Joseph J.
Czarnezki, in their official capacities as members of the Commission; and Meagan Wolfe, in her official capacity as administrator of the Commission, by undersigned counsel, respond to the petition for leave to commence an original action as follows:

The Commission is responsible for administering elections. See generally Wis. Stat. ch. 5–10, 12. In fulfilling that duty, the Commission has no role or interest in determining where legislative district boundaries are located. Accordingly, the Commission takes no position on the merits of the claims in the petition for leave to commence an original action.<sup>1</sup>

The Commission's primary concern is to ensure that any litigation involving legislative district boundaries is conducted in a way that takes into account relevant administrative limitations and statutory deadlines, so that the litigation does not disrupt or impair the proper, efficient, and effective administration of the 2024 election calendar. The Commission, therefore, does not oppose this Court exercising its original jurisdiction, if it determines that will best facilitate that goal.

In the most recent redistricting case before this Court, Johnson v. Wisconsin Elections Commission, 2022AP1450-OA, the Commission explained, that for staff to be able to timely and effectively administer the November 8, 2022, election, including the nomination petition circulation process starting on April 15, 2022, maps needed to be in place no later than March 15, 2022.

If this Court takes jurisdiction, the Commission intends to again advocate for timely and expeditious resolution of all litigation so as not to adversely impact the 2024 election calendar. The Commission is prepared to provide more specific calendar information and additional explanation at an appropriate time and to respond to any requests by the Court.

If this Court takes jurisdiction, the Commission also intends to seek dismissal of its individual commissioners and administrator, on the ground that they are not proper parties to the proposed original action.

Dated this 22nd day of August 2023.

Respectfully submitted,

ERIC J. WILSON
Deputy Attorney General of Wisconsin
